The following declarations are for Reserve only.

Important notes – Reserve

- 1 A specimen policy document and/or copy of this completed form are available on request.
- 2 You are advised to satisfy yourself/selves that, under any taxation, exchange control or insurance legislation to which you may be subject, you are permitted to effect the policy.
- 3 You should seek guidance from your financial adviser as to the suitability of the policy to your own particular circumstances. Reserve should be regarded as a medium to long-term investment (five years or more).
- 4 Each policy is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the law of the Isle of Man.
- 5 A politically exposed person is a person who is or has been entrusted with prominent public functions. This includes: head of state, head of government, minister or deputy or assistant minister, senior government official, member of parliament, senior politician, important political party official, senior judicial official, member of a court of auditors or the board of a central bank, ambassador, chargé d'affaires or other high-ranking officer in a diplomatic service, high-ranking officer in an armed force, senior member of an administrative, management or supervisory body of a state-owned enterprise, senior member of management of, or a member of, the governing body of an international entity or organization or honorary consul. A politically exposed person is also a family member or a close associate of such a person. This applies to the applicant, policyholder, life assured, payer of the payment, beneficiary or any other party connected to this application.

Please refer to the Isle of Man Anti-Money-Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism Code 2015 for the full definition of a "politically exposed person", and in particular, further elaboration on whether a person is a "family member" or a "close associate".

6 Investment acknowledgement

Reserve gives you an investment choice from a very wide-ranging menu of investments. Some of the funds which are available to you are classed as specialist funds aimed at professional or experienced investors. If you were investing in such a fund directly yourself, rather than through your Reserve policy, you may have to declare that:

- You have read and understood the information supplied to you and understand the nature of any risks involved.
- You have discussed with your financial adviser whether such an asset is appropriate to your investment portfolio.
- You are eligible and able to invest into the fund and have the level of investment knowledge and experience required by the fund manager.
- You meet certain minimum financial requirements.

Ordinarily some of these funds could only be held by professional/experienced investors rather than the general public. Also, information relating to such investments may not be available for distribution in certain jurisdictions. However, when the investment is made through your Reserve policy, we are treated as the professional or experienced investor and this enables policyholders that may not have been able to do so, to access these funds.

Please note that different jurisdictions may impose different criteria on the generally accepted definition of a professional/ experienced investor. Full definitions, restrictions and investor requirements can be found in each fund's prospectus/terms and conditions, which are available from the fund manager or your financial adviser. We recommend that you obtain, read and fully understand a copy of the prospectus/terms and conditions for your chosen investment.

7 Liquidity information

Some funds may have restrictions on their ability to pay redemptions due to the type of underlying investments they hold. This could limit your ability to raise cash from the fund in the future.

Investment into specialist funds should be considered a long-term investment. You, in conjunction with your financial adviser, should consider the amount you invest via your policy if it is likely that you will need access to your capital quickly in the future.

Declarations – Reserve

Attention is drawn to the following declarations. Where we have asked for information that we need to assess before we can accept your application, you must disclose all facts which are material. Such facts are those which an insurer would regard as likely to influence the assessment and acceptance of a proposal. If you are in doubt as to the relevance of any particular information you should disclose it, as failure to do so could result in the policy being invalid.

1 Investment declarations

Before you invest in any assets through your Reserve policy, we want to ensure that you are aware of the nature and possible risks associated with them. Would you therefore please make the following declarations:

- a) We understand that we may choose the investments to which our Reserve policies are to be linked.
- b) We acknowledge that it is our responsibility to ensure that the asset is suitable, considering our underlying investment objectives and attitude to risk.
- c) We confirm that we understand certain assets may have restrictions on their ability to raise cash in the future, and that further details are included in the prospectus or terms and conditions for the respective underlying investment. We understand the risks associated with investing in these assets.
- d) If we choose to invest into specialist funds aimed at professional investors, we acknowledge that it is our responsibility to obtain, read and understand the fund prospectus.
- e) We acknowledge that Friends Provident International is not responsible for the investment performance or any loss suffered or reduction in the value of our Reserve policy, arising from my/our chosen investment. Friends Provident International does not have any responsibility for the investment management of the assets within our policy and Friends Provident International does not approve any asset as a suitable investment.

- f) We acknowledge that Friends Provident International reserves the right to reject any asset, for example, if certain administration criteria are not met.
- g) We acknowledge the purchase of our investments may be delayed if Friends Provident International requires a signed declaration in respect of our chosen investments.
- h) We acknowledge that the purchase of our investments are processed according to the terms and conditions of the relevant institution that cash is being invested with.
- i) We acknowledge that specific investor protection and compensation schemes that may exist in relation to collective investments and deposit accounts are unlikely to apply in the event of failure of such an investment held within insurance policies.

2 General declarations

We, the current trustees of the trust created on the day of (month) (year)
 (name of the trust)

confirm the following to Friends Provident International:

- a) That we have the necessary powers of investment to invest in policies of life assurance.
- b) That the trustees detailed in Section 1 of this application form are the current trustees of the trust.

Nationality	<input type="text"/>	Date of birth	<input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/>

- d) That without prejudice to the generality of this clause, the trust company's required number of authorised signatories must sign all types of instructions (for example, instructions to change underlying investments, make cash withdrawals, totally surrendering the policy).
- e) That we will advise Friends Provident International in writing immediately of any changes in the trustees.

3 Premium tax/Withholding tax

We acknowledge that in the event of any premium tax or withholding tax being levied in our country of residence, it will be our responsibility to increase the payment by an appropriate amount or to settle the liability directly with the relevant tax authorities.

4 Cancellation rights

You will be able to cancel your investment up to 30 days from the day you receive the cancellation notice as described below. You will receive a refund of the premium less a deduction for shortfall to reflect any fall in the markets in the interim and, where applicable, less any initial fee which was facilitated by us to your financial adviser. A cancellation notice that provides you with more detail, including when the cancellation period begins and ends and how to exercise, it will be issued by post to you when the policy documents are produced.

We acknowledge that Friends Provident International and our financial adviser have entered into an agreement ('terms of business') which sets out the basis upon which Friends Provident International is prepared to accept applications submitted by the financial adviser on our behalf. This agreement categorically states that the financial adviser acts as my agent, and not the agent of Friends Provident International. We acknowledge that our financial adviser, or any other, has no authority to act as the agent of Friends Provident International or to state, suggest or imply that it has such authority.

7 Fees and commissions

We are aware that certain investments the financial adviser makes from time to time may contain fees which exist partly to meet promotion and distribution expenses of the investment, including commission paid to our adviser. We understand that full details of any commissions paid in respect of certain investments held within the Reserve policy are available on request from our adviser.

We acknowledge that the above fees and commissions are in addition to Friends Provident International's Reserve policy charges and any annual fee taken on our Reserve policy by our independent financial adviser.

7 Specialist Fund Acknowledgement

We offer products that provide access to a wide range of funds, known as mirror funds, that invest in all the major asset classes and geographic regions of the world. Some of these mirror funds invest into funds which are classed as specialist funds, aimed at professional or experienced investors. If the application form requests information which has to be assessed by Friends Provident International before acceptance, you must disclose all facts which are material. Such facts are those which an insurer would regard as likely to influence the assessment and acceptance of a proposal. If you are in doubt as to the relevance of any particular information you should disclose it, as failure to do so could result in you being provided with the wrong terms, a request being rejected or reduced, or the policy being invalid.
