

Sovereign Trust (Cyprus) Limited

Privacy Notice for provision of trust and corporate services

1. Purpose of this privacy notice

The purpose of this privacy notice is to explain what Personal Data we collect about you and how we process it in order to provide corporate management and directorship services and professional trustee services (“the Services”) to you. This privacy notice also explains your rights, so please read it carefully. If you have any questions, you can contact us using the information provided below under the ‘How to contact us’ section.

This Privacy Notice may be updated and/ or re-issued at any time, and we will provide you with notice of any such updates via either email and/or our Website.

2. What Personal Data is

‘Personal Data’ means any information from which someone can be identified either directly or indirectly. For example, you can be identified by your name or an online identifier.

‘Special Category Personal Data’ is more sensitive Personal Data and includes information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data for the purposes of uniquely identifying someone, data concerning physical or mental health or data concerning someone’s sex life or sexual orientation.

‘Criminal offence data’ refers to personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences or related security measures. This covers information about offenders or suspected offenders in the context of criminal activity, allegations, investigations and proceedings.

3. Personal Data we collect

The Personal Data we collect about you will be the minimum necessary to provide the Services. The type of Personal Data we collect is outlined in the table below in the section entitled ‘Purposes, lawful bases and retention periods’.

4. How we collect your Personal Data

We collect most of the Personal Data directly from you in person, by telephone, text or email and/or via our website.

However, we may also need to collect Personal Data from third parties such as:

- Sovereign staff and personnel
- Group staff and Personnel
- Introducers
- Intermediaries

- Courier and mail services
- Recruitment Agencies
- Third Party Contractors and Service Providers
- Financial Entities and payment providers
- Authorities and Regulators

5. Cookies

A cookie is a small text file which is placed onto your device (e.g computer, smartphone or other electronic device) when you use our website.

Our website uses cookies. For further information about cookies and how we use them, please see our Cookie Notice.

7. Marketing Material

We would like to send you information about our products and services, events and news, which may be of interest to you. Where we have your consent or it is in our legitimate interest to do so, we may do this by email, telephone or social media.

You can unsubscribe at any time by:

- contacting us at marketing@sovereigngroup.com
- using the 'unsubscribe' link in emails.

You also have the right to object to your personal data being used for direct marketing purposes at any time.

For more information on how we use your personal data for marketing purposes, please see our Marketing Privacy Notice.

8. Retention

We will retain your personal data for as long as is necessary to provide the services which you have requested from us.

However, we may need to retain some records for a longer period where this is required for us to be able to comply with our legal obligations.

We may also need to retain your personal data for a longer period where this is required in relation to legal claims and/or investigation by local authorities, although this is rare.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

We retain your personal data in accordance with the retention periods set out in the table above.

We will then dispose of said information, when and as is necessary, such information held on you if such is requested by yourself (unless this continues to remain necessarily held by Sovereign for the provision of a service).

8. International Transfers

Your personal data may be shared within the Sovereign Group. This may include transferring your personal data to other Group offices.

We may also share your personal data with 3rd party service providers. If we do so, we will enter into appropriate contractual arrangements to oblige the entities in those countries to operate to appropriate data protection standards.

- In the EU/EEA these standards include Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs) approved by the European Commission, which contractually oblige the entities in those countries to operate to the data protection standards expected within the EU/EEA.

In such cases, our service providers and suppliers are data processors (data intermediaries) and may only use the data in line with our instructions and not for any other purpose. This and other obligations are agreed in the data processing contract between us.

9. Your rights and how to complain

You have certain rights in relation to the processing of your Personal Data, including to:

- Right to be informed
