About National Insurance numbers

A National Insurance number (NINO) is a nine-digit reference made up of letters and numbers in the following format: QQ123456A. This will be on:

- member's P60 certificate from their employer
- member's PAYE Coding Notice or a letter from us
- · member's payslip from their employer

Round to the nearest pound

• any letter from the Department for Work and Pensions or Jobcentre Plus to the member.

If a member is unsure if they qualify for a NINO they should contact the Jobcentre Plus Helpline on 0845 6000 643 to book a Right To Work interview. After the interview Jobcentre Plus will either give them a NINO or a letter telling them that they are not entitled to one.

If they don't have a NINO, they will need to confirm that they are not entitled to a NINO.

If the member has another HMRC reference number that relates to them as an individual, for example, a Unique Taxpayer Reference (UTR), please give that number.

If a member has lost or can't remember their NINO they should either fill in and return form CA5403 Your National Insurance number (available on the HMRC website) or phone the National Insurance Registrations Helpline on 0845 915 7006.

If they are unable to give the NINO or written confirmation that they are not entitled to a NINO, together with an alternative HMRC reference number, the scheme administrator of the UK pension scheme will be unable to process the request to transfer to the OROPS.
