Privacy Notice

1. Purpose of this privacy notice

The purpose of this privacy notice is to explain what Personal Data we collect about you and how we process it in order to provide corporate management and directorship services and professional trustee services to you. This privacy notice also explains your rights, so please read it carefully. If you have any questions, you can contact us using the information provided below under the 'How to contact us' section.

2. What Personal Data is

'Personal Data' means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

'Special Category Personal Data' is more sensitive Personal Data and includes information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data for the purposes of uniquely identifying someone, data concerning physical or mental health or data concerning someone's sex life or sexual orientation.

'Criminal offence data' refers to personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences or related security measures. This covers information about offenders or suspected offenders in the context of criminal activity, allegations, investigations and proceedings.

3. Personal Data we collect

The Personal Data we collect about you will be the minimum necessary to provide corporate management and directorship services and professional trustee services. The type of Personal Data we collect is outlined in the table below in the section entitled 'Purposes, lawful bases and retention periods'.

4. How we collect your Personal Data

We collect most of the Personal Data directly from you in person, by telephone, text or email and/or via our website.

We may also need to collect Personal Data from third parties such as:

- Lawyers;
- Investment Managers/advisors;
- Property Managers;
- Accountants.
- Screening/internet searches.

5. Cookies

A cookie is a small text file which is placed onto your device (e.g computer, smartphone or other electronic device) when you use our website.

Our website uses cookies. For further information about cookies and how we use them, please see our Cookie Notice.

Where Personal Data is processed because it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party, we will be unable to provide our services without the required information.

7. Marketing

We would like to send you information about our products and services, events and news, which may be of interest to you. Where we have your consent or it is in our legitimate interest to do so, we may do this by email, telephone or social media.

You can unsubscribe at any time by:

- contacting us at marketing@sovereigngroup.com
- using the 'unsubscribe' link in emails.

You also have the right to object to your personal data being used for direct marketing purposes at any time.

For more information on how we use your personal data for marketing purpose, please see our Marketing Privacy Notice.

8. Sharing your Personal Data

In the course of providing you with this product/service – we may need to share your Personal Data with the following third parties:

- Lawyers;
- Accountants;
- Auditors;
- Property Managers;
- Banks;
- Other Sovereign entities;
- Guernsey and overseas regulators, governmental/quasi-governmental bodies and tax authorities when required by law;
- Credit reference, compliance, fraud prevention and law enforcement agencies.

9. Retention

We will retain your personal data whilst it is required for the relevant purposes or to meet our legal obligations.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

Where your information is no longer required, we will ensure it is disposed of or deleted in a secure manner.

10. International Transfers

Your personal data may be shared within the Sovereign Group. This may include transferring your personal data to other Group offices.

We may also share your personal data with 3rd party service providers. If we do so, we will enter into appropriate contractual arrangements to oblige the entities in those countries to operate to appropriate data protection standards.

These standards include Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs) approved by Guernsey's Office for the Data Protection Authority and enable the free flow of personal data when embedded in a contract.

They are the following:

- The International Data Transfer Agreement;
- The International data transfer addendum to the European Commission's standard contractual clauses for international data transfers.

In such cases, our service providers and suppliers are data processors and may only use the data in line with our instructions and not for any other purpose. This and other obligations are agreed in the data processing contract between us.

11. Your rights and how to complain

You have certain rights in relation to the processing of your Personal Data, including to:

Right to be informed - You have the right to know what personal data we collect about you, how we use it, for what purpose and in accordance with which lawful basis, who we share it with and how long we keep it. We use our privacy notice to explain this.
